

Indigènes

Genre:

Drama, War

Starring:

Sami Bouajila, Jamel Debbouze, Samy Naceri, Roschdy Zem and Bernard Blancan

Synopsis:

During

WWII, four North African men enlist with the French Army to help defend and liberate France from the Nazis. This film tells of the discrimination they faced amongst their own as they battled. The way they are mistreated often leaves them vulnerable, due to ill fitting uniforms or weapons that malfunction, but beneath it all these soldiers continue to fight for the freedom of the country they believe to be theirs.

Films are subject to changes without prior notice. First-come, first-served basis. No reservations.

